Dear Mr. Lamb;

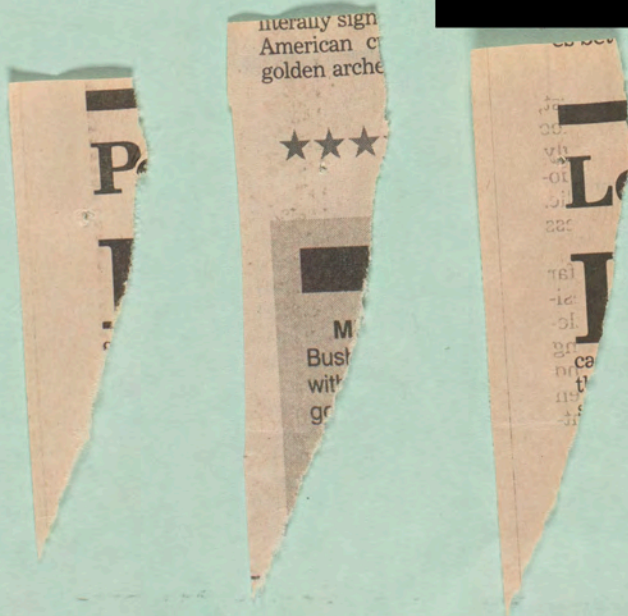

The beginning of January you had a telephone chat with David Broder and the topic was columnists. A woman called from the Orlando area with a boost for Charlie Reese and you observed that Mr. Reese had been brought up before and there seemed an expansion on the topic was about to get underway when, bingo!, the conversation was off on another tangent -- just by chance, of course. Just like the occasion when the Marine Master Sargent brought up the fiftieth question at Twenty Nine Palms.

Enclosed you'll find three of Mr. Reese's efforts from January, 1999.

Sincerely cynical,
[REDACTED]

Now, don't you think this was polite?
