

Does C-Span (and commercial TV) feel its demeaning to show the names?

PLEASE!

But name is shown very ~~briefly~~ briefly, or not at all.

Over and over and over C-Span shows a member of Congress speaking. It would seem obvious that the most important thing to a viewer is the name of the speaker. So what do we get? All kinds of information of coming events, or of subject of debate. This subject is shown at great length, over and over.
