C-Span

Suit 155

400 N. Capitol St.

Washington, D.C. 2001

I watch C-Span because:

- S- Sensitive to the needs of citizens of the world;
- P- Provides national audience Participation;
- A- Advances the cause of free speech;
- N- Never tries to manipulate, monopolize, or form my own opinions;
- S- Selects much needed topics for discussion
- p- Promotes political Awareness with interviews of most National, State and local

- politicians,
- A - Allows for broader coverage of seminars, news conferences, political debates and discussions pertinent to us all.
 - N - never do C-Span's hosts try to intimidate or embarrass their guests. C-Span's hosts exhibits a unique professional etiquette, which makes for relaxed and congenial guests;

C-Span doesn't sensationalize the news, rather C-Span actively, aggressively and consistently work to insure that its audience received unbiased, uncensored information; a must in our rapidly changing and challenging world.

C-Span contributes to the political process by their coverage of various governmental hearings, debates and sessions.

C-Span's coverage of news is most profoundly international.

And lastly, C-Span exhibits an unbiased attitude by allowing examination of ethnic and religious concerns, however diverse; an attitude that seems to escape most of the major news and television shows in America today.

May God continue to Bless C-Span and expand C-Span.

Thank you for allowing C-Span's audience this opportunity of supportive expression.

Sincerely
