DEAR BRIAN:

Thank GOD FOR ESPN. I
HAVE ONLY HAD CABLE AND
ESPN #1 FOR ABOUT 2 YEARS.

YOUR COVERAGE OF DAILY
EVENTS GIVE ME TRUTH WHICH IS NOT POSSIBLE ON BIG 3.

WE HAVE JIM BAKKER, JIMMY SWAGGART,
PETE ROSE, JIMMY THE GREEK, STEINBRENNER
BARNEY FRANK, DVERENBURGER, KEATING 5, BARRY
JIM WRIGHT, TONY COHELO, SHOAL CREEK PGA AND ON AND ON.

ALL THIS PROVES THAT THE MARTIN LUTHER KING JR
VICTORY IS BEING SABOTAGED BY NAACP-ACLU
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADER ALLIANCE WHICH RESULTS
IN REVERSE DISCRIMINATION. I AM NOT RACIST,
BUT AS A BORN AGAIN CHRISTIAN I FIND NOTHING
IN MY BIBLE WHICH SAYS I MUST TELL ANYONE
HE MUST INVITE ME INTO MY CLUB OR SOCIETY
UNLESS HE HAS EARNED THE RIGHT TO BE INVITED
BY ME.

WE ARE NOW INVOLVED IN IRAQC AGAINST THE
WORLD. UNTIL YOU GUYS WHO CALL THE SHOTS WAKE UP TO THE FACT THAT THE PROBLEM IS COVERED BY BIBLICAL RULES. ARABS ARE ANTI-CHRIST,
EVEN AS OUR MEDIA STARS, AND THE ABOVE.

THERE ARE ONLY TWO KINDS OF PEOPLE ALIVE ON THIS EARTH
TODAY.

CLEARWATER FL 34616

- ① THOSE WHO BELIEVE AND SERVE
JESUS AND HIS FATHER GOD.
- ② THOSE WHO REFUSE TO BOW
THE KNEE AND CONFESS JESUS
AS LORD AND SAVIOR THEREBY BEING UNDER THE POWER OF
SATAN. SATAN IS THE SOURCE OF ALL LIES.

OUR PROBLEM TODAY IS THAT THE MILLIONS OF CHURCH MEMBERS DENOMINATIONS WHO ARE STILL UNDER SATAN'S POWERS AND ARE SERVING HIM.

AS YOU AND YOUR PROGRAMMERS CONTINUE TO REFUSE EQUAL COVERAGE BY HAVING PROFESSED UPFRONT CHRISTIANS WHO CAN AND WILL TELL THE RULES OF GOD ON YOUR SHOW
YOU ARE DISCRIMINATING AGAINST TRUTH.

JESUS SAID SEEK GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART
AND HE WILL FIND YOU. HE HAS GREAT PLANS
FOR YOU LIFE. YOU AND YOU ALONE CAN DECIDE WHETHER YOU ARE GOING TO HELL OR HEAVEN.

I AM PRAYING THAT YOU DECIDE ON HEAVEN.
AS THE HOLY SPIRIT DEALS WITH YOUR HEART
LISTEN AND ACT.

When God asked how you were able to be so successful and are now a success you not once gave credit to who made it all possible, Jesus Christ. When are you going to Repent and tell people that God put you where you are.

Everything in your program was very much focused on Jimmy Carter and what he is doing and if he were still President how great things would be. Fortunately for you, you don't have to answer to me. After you have sought answers from God I pray you will find the answers to "What wilt

ARGENTINA SPIRITUAL EXPLOSION

FGBMFI officers and airlift members from the USA overlooking the city of Buenos Aires

The following report on the spiritual awakening in Argentina was submitted earlier this year by Phil Saint, whose ministry 'Saint Ministries International Inc.' has been active in Argentina for approximately thirty years. Phil has been a great help to FGBMFI. In our recent airlifts to Argentina, he opened many doors of opportunity as he traveled with the teams. He also served as an outstanding interpreter. Phil made it possible for FGBMFI to have Carlos Annacondia as a featured speaker at our World Convention in Orlando, Florida this summer.

"During my thirty years in Argentina, I have never seen anything like what is happening today. A tremendous change of attitude toward the gospel has occurred in the last several years, and it looks like the final universal outpouring of the Holy Spirit is underway. The time is ripe to put in the sickle and reap a mighty harvest for the Lord.

Imagine if you can, 50,000 Argentines standing for hours in open fields to hear the Word of God! A short-statured, unpretentious Argentine businessman, Carlos Annacondia, converted only seven years ago, has appeared like a flaming meteor on the national horizon. Like John Wesley of old, Carlos has been forced to take to the fields for lack of adequate buildings or stadiums. In one campaign, 83,000 made a profession of faith, jamming all the evangelical churches in the vicinity. These people are not just names and addresses on cards, but are desperate seekers who are finding solutions in Christ to their overwhelming personal problems.

Crash courses have had to be scheduled to teach believers how to minister to all these new Christians, the great majority of whom could not name the four gospels. Pastors have hastily opened up stores, garages, and private homes to meet the overwhelming need.

In these meetings, people begin to run to the platform before Carlos is halfway through his message, which is simple, but packed with divine authority. It has been necessary to form a human chain of ushers, arms linked together, to let only thirty or forty people at a time approach the improvised stage. Most upon whom hands are laid, fall under the power of the Holy Spirit, and many of them arise completely healed of a wide variety of ills.

As the power of God comes on the meeting, many in the vast audience who are afflicted with demons, begin writhing, moaning, and thrashing about. In each case, an usher nearby waves a handkerchief, and the "stretcher men" run to the spot, carry or drag the demonized person to a large tent behind the platform, where qualified pastors take authority over the demons in the name of Jesus.

Multiplied thousands have accepted Christ, as they have seen demented relatives or neighbors completely normalized by this ministry of deliverance, not to mention the blind receiving their sight, and other marvelous miracles. In addition, these supernatural manifestations have electrified the Christian community, and have attracted others who for years have been completely indifferent to the gospel.

Recently, a criminal type from the underworld was hired by a certain group to assassinate Carlos

Jorge Avil (right) witnessing to a young Argentine businessman

Annacondia while he was preaching on the platform. The man put a telescopic sight on his rifle and climbed up on a rooftop near the scene of the open-air meetings; but, every time he endeavored to get the evangelist in the cross hairs of his telescopic sight, a white cloud inexplicably came between him and his intended victim. After several tries, completely unstrung by what was obviously a supernatural act of God, he threw down his gun and ran to the platform to be saved.

In another incident, two pairs of policemen, who had been sent to the meeting by their chief to have the volume on the loud speakers turned down, failed to return. Furious, the police chief dressed, drove to the meeting, pushed his way through the crowd that jammed the aisles, and found his men flat on the ground, slain by the Spirit and speaking in tongues.

One of the women ushers, late for a meeting, took a taxi. As she talked with the driver, she found that he had attended one of the services and wanted to know why Annacondia was so proud.

'Proud?' she asked. 'Why everybody is convinced that he is a very humble man!'

'Well then,' replied the taxi driver, 'Why does he have five bodyguards—the five tall men dressed in white standing behind him on the platform while he preaches?'

My son, David, is a pastor of a flourishing church in Cordoba. In one of their evangelistic meetings, a young man, a nephew of David's wife Edith, suddenly felt a warm sensation in his lower jaw. A bit disquieted by this strange happening, he went to the bathroom and looked at his open mouth in the mirror. He was amazed to find that four of his teeth had been miraculously filled during the meeting! There are hundreds, perhaps thousands of cases carefully verified, of teeth that have been filled; and some of the teeth have the clear imprint of the cross on them.

In all parts of the country, local pastors and lay people are putting on soulwinning campaigns marked by healings, deliverances, and other signs and wonders. The Acts of the Apostles have come alive before our very eyes. The names of the spiritual leaders are different, but the moving of the Holy Spirit is practically identical.

As I analyze this mountain of evidence that keeps coming in from all sides, I am convinced that God has worked in Argentina through the disastrous Falkland Islands war and through the political, social, and economic upheaval that followed.

Without debating who was right and who was wrong, the stark fact is that Argentina suffered a humiliating defeat, not for lack of courage, but because of the bungling of their military junta. All along, they had been told that victory was theirs. Then from night to morning, the awful news broke upon them that they had lost the war. This dramatic and unexpected turn of events, left the masses terribly disillusioned and faced with a severe economic crisis. Argentina, once the 'bread basket of the world,' suddenly found itself on the cutting edge of bankruptcy.

The Word of God says that He 'makes the wrath of men to praise Him.' And, it was certainly true in this case. Because of losing the war, the discredited military generals were thrown out. Free elections brought Raul Alfonsin to the president's chair and established a democratic form of government, after years of disastrous political dictatorship.

For the first time in the history of Latin America, despotic militarists have been brought to the bar of justice and sent to jail for long prison terms, after receiving a fair trial.

Because of the new freedom of democracy, there have been unsettled strikes and abuses of this new found freedom; however, one significant change has been the open door to mass evangelism through Christian television. What a tremendous improvement over the past. Prior to this time, Argentine governments flatly refused the broadcasting of evangelical TV programs, except in rare cases. Now however, men like Pat Robertson of the 700 Club, Jimmy Swaggart, and others are making a deep impression here, bringing about a notable change in the attitude of the Argentine masses.

The great majority of the citizenry would not think of going into an evangelical 'temple,' but they can now watch and listen to the gospel in the privacy of their own homes, and they are liking what they see and hear.

Those, who have mistakenly thought that we Bible-believing Christians were pitiful handfuls of people hidden away in small churches, are suddenly seeing thousands of rejoicing evangelicals in great stadium rallies held and televised in big cities in the United States and overseas.

People are not only accepting Christ through weekly TV programs in Argentine cities, but many thousands more respect charismatics as they hear the high quality music, the hard hitting messages against public and private sin, and the presentation of Christ as Saviour and Lord—messages that pour out of the burdened heart of a deeply compassionate preacher." ■

Our Vision

Our vision for the Fellowship is based upon a series of prophetic messages given over a period of time and confirmed by a literal vision from God.

In the vision, untold masses of men from every continent and nation, of all races and diverse culture and costume, once spiritually dead, are now alive. Delivered and set free, they are filled with the power of God's Holy Spirit, faces radiant with glory, hands raised and voices lifting their praises to heaven.

We see a vast global movement of laymen comprised of millions of men being used mightily by God to bring this last great harvest through the outpouring of God's Holy Spirit before the return of our Lord Jesus Christ

Our Mission Statement

1. To reach men in all nations for Jesus Christ
2. To call men back to God
3. To help believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit and to grow spiritually
4. To train and equip men to fulfill the Great Commission
5. To provide an opportunity for Christian fellowship
6. To bring a greater unity among all people in the body of Christ

Doctrinal Statement

SECTION 1. PURPOSE OF STATEMENT

Our doctrinal statement is not a "creed." In a sense, the whole Bible is our creed. We recognize the existence of many differences of interpretation among genuine Christians. But we want to affirm the basic beliefs that unite our Fellowship and make it possible. Also, to avoid a vagueness which might result in the admission of unbelievers or of Christians unprepared to cooperate in the work to which God has called us, certain essential Biblical doctrines should be clearly stated. The rejection of any of these shall be grounds for ineligibility to membership.

SECTION 2. FGBMFI DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

1. We believe in one God, Maker of all things and being in Trinity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
2. We believe that the Son of God, Jesus Christ, became incarnate, was begotten by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, and is true God and true man.
3. We believe that the Bible in its entirety is the inspired word of God and infallible rule of faith and conduct.
4. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, the eternal happiness of the saved, and the eternal punishment of the lost.
5. We believe in the personal salvation of believers through the shed blood of Christ.
6. We believe in sanctification by the blood of Christ, in personal holiness of heart and life, and in separation from the world.
7. We believe in divine healing, through faith, and that healing is included in the atonement.
8. We believe in the baptism of the Holy Ghost accompanied by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives utterance (Acts 2:4), as distinct from the new birth, and in the nine gifts of the Spirit, listed in I Corinthians 12, as now available to believers.
9. We believe in the Christian's hope—the imminent, personal return of the Lord Jesus Christ.
10. We believe in intensive world evangelism and missionary work in accordance with the Great Commission, with signs following.

SECTION 3. STATEMENT APPLIED

The acceptance of the ten doctrinal points stated above in Section 2 of this article is essential to membership in the International and in the Chapters, and while we recognize the obligation of maintaining spiritual love and union toward all true Christians who may not accept all of these doctrinal points, and welcome them to our fellowship gatherings, they are not permitted any voice in the conduct of our activities and are ineligible for membership in the International or in the Chapters.

If the above Statement expresses beliefs upon which you would like to affirm and act, pick up an application form from an FGBMFI chapter officer and mail it to: FGBMFI / P.O. Box 5050 / Costa Mesa, CA 92628.

Let's serve Him-
together!
I Cor. 3:9

"For we are laborers
together with God..."
(I Corinthians 3:9)

Dear Brother in Christ:

I want to invite you personally to join a fellowship of Spirit-filled men who are committed to following Jesus Christ into His "harvest fields" today.

You know, as dedicated followers of the Lord, we become more effective leaders of men. Jesus Christ is at the core of our Fellowship, and leading men is the center of our strategy.

Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International is an organization which unites businessmen with a single goal: taking the full Gospel of Jesus Christ to the world. Starting in 1953 with a single small chapter, the Fellowship today has 3,000 chapters meeting in 93 countries, with ministries reaching 700,000 each month.

I know your membership will be a fulfilling experience. You will enjoy growth in the Spirit, find fellowship with dynamic laymen, and discover many new witnessing opportunities in your area. Every one of our members becomes a leader. He is trained to be a laborer in Christ's harvest field. Let me tell you, it's exciting to have a part in fulfilling the Great Commission.

We are seeing men all over the world find new joy and purpose in their lives as they discover the Gospel. I want you to become a part of this great movement of laymen. I firmly believe that God is going to use people like you to bring about the final great revival before Christ's coming.

As laymen, we can penetrate every nation, every social level, for Christ—from head of state to man on the street. I know, I see it happening through dedicated laymen today—from the crowded cities of Korea to the scattered islands of the South Pacific to the towns and neighborhoods of America.

A unique opportunity lies ahead of you as a Christian businessman. Whatever your denomination, your business, profession or occupation, you can help change the spiritual destiny of thousands. In the power of the Spirit you may become a co-laborer with Christ in bringing individuals everywhere from death to eternal life. What an opportunity awaits us!

Right now we are praying for more members, men who yearn to be used of God. We are praying that God will give us men just like you who will give their time, talent and treasure to bring the lost men of the nations to Jesus while the doors remain open.

Jesus Christ first called fishermen by Galilee's shore to be His disciples. He still calls laymen—merchants, professionals, laborers, public servants, etc. to serve Him. Let's serve Him together!

Your Co-laborer,

Demos Shakarian
Founder/President

As a member of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International, you will—

- Enjoy prayer and Bible study with men facing the same challenges and concerns you face in business life
- Find many opportunities to invite your unchurched acquaintances to chapter meetings held in "neutral" hotels and restaurants
- Be encouraged and motivated toward a closer walk with Christ in the Spirit
- Build lifelong friendships with men from many parts of the world
- See the power of the Spirit manifested in restored marriages, healed bodies and renewed lives
- Have "once-in-a-lifetime" opportunities to minister as a layman in countries where regular missionaries are not permitted
- Develop and exercise your own spiritual gift (teaching, exhorting, helping, etc.) as part of an active, Spirit-filled fellowship
- Discover a local group of vibrant, praise-filled men who can encourage you through the ups and downs of life
- Play a vital role in the worldwide thrust of FGBMFI through conventions, media, literature, stewardship, prayer and counseling
- Find deep satisfaction in ministering with fellow businessmen inspired as you are by a vision of reaching men for Christ
