Sir, I generally like C-Span as informative and educational. Thank you for making us remember WWII on to-days program. My [redacted]

[redacted] so he and I both remember the war vividly. My cousin died when HMS HOOD was blown up by the Germans, many friends also were killed. I think of the air raids, we endured and many other things. [redacted] phoned from California to tell us to watch C-Span, to-night.

Which brings me to the reason I am writing to you. I watched C-Span and was appalled at the media attacks on Pres. Clinton concerning "Whitewater." This propensity of Americans to trash their elected leaders amazes me, and the present media is responsible for much of this, I feel. However I've felt that you try to be objective, so I was disappointed when you asked the veterans if they would feel differently about Pres. Clinton giving a speech similar to the one portrayed by Reagan, due to Clinton's anti-Vietnam views. My husband does not feel that way, nor do I, most men Clinton's age were anti-Vietnam. This [redacted] would have done the most she could to keep my then young son out of Vietnam and my sons-in-law also, as it was the most unjust war which gained nothing but 50,000 American dead and many, many wounded. WWII was different though all wars are horrible.

[redacted] so I am not anti-military. Give Clinton a break!

Thank you again, I hear that you are a Purdue grad, my three children graduated there and 2 of my 6 grandchildren start at Purdue this August. Sincerely, [redacted]
