

Dear Brian,

The big press sets the agenda
on what is news and what is "true".
Your callers used to amend a little of this liberal view.

Callers, before, balanced the scales.
Now you have tipped them to the left
and all your former fairness pales,
and leaves conservatives bereft.

you decided we hogged the phones
but that's not a fair assumption.
We're sick of bias to our bones
and that gives us added grumptions.

Sally sincerely,
