Mr. Lamb of C-SPAN

Dear Mr. Lamb:

I listen to C-SPAN frequently and have done so for many years.
I enjoy and feel rewarded by the great majority of your programs.

Earlier this week - I think on November 8, I not only was greatly disappointed I was greatly dismayed and even annoyed. As a result I am writing to tell you I hope that you never have Mr. R. Emmett Tyrell Jr. from the AMERICAN SPECTATOR on any of your programs again.

First he was far below your standard of competency and courtesy. And second, he loved the sound of his own voice as he wandered far from any direct answer to questions while he monopolized the program. And then a gentleman on a public program is never rude.no matter the provocation. While he was talking he propped his head on his hand while his elbow was on the table which seemed to indicate his boredom while everything was beneath him. Really a minor if not a major disaster.

I have never called or written C-SPAN before but Mr. Tyrell really inspired me.

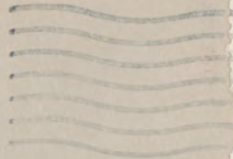

~~Keep up the good work. I can easily forgive one nincompoop.~~

Keep up the good work. I can easily forgive one nincompoop.

Sincerely

P.S. At first I intended to send Mr. Tyrell a copy of this letter but decided a little wound like this would never penetrate his ego.
