

CONTACT: Virginia Diez
(202) 626-4602

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

C-SPAN'S WEEKENDER

Washington, D.C., December 9, 1992--Throughout the weekend, C-SPAN will air the most recent public appearances by national figures ranging from President-elect Bill Clinton and former President Jimmy Carter, to native American rights activist Russell Mean and actress Julie Andrews. Schedule is as follows:

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1992

- * 11:00 AM (ET) -- On "COMMUNICATIONS TODAY," a speech by cable industry leader Jerry Rubenstein at the Washington Cable Club from Tuesday, December 8.
- * 1:00 PM (ET) -- Fmr. President Jimmy Carter's Annual "STATE OF HUMAN RIGHTS ADDRESS," delivered on Thursday, December 10.
- * 7:00 PM (ET) -- "AMERICA AND THE COURTS" focuses on this week's events such as President-elect Bill Clinton's visit to the Supreme Court, the Court's decisions on abortion and gay rights, a speech by Chief Justice William Rehnquist, and remarks by U.S. Solicitor General Kenneth Starr at the annual D.C. Bar Association banquet.
- * 10:30 PM (ET) -- An address to the City Club of Cleveland on AMERICAN INDIAN ISSUES by native American Russell Means, one of the early leaders of the American Indian Movement.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1992

- * 7:00 AM (ET) -- NATIONAL PRESS CLUB appearance by actress Julie Andrews, who represents the United Nations Development Fund for Women.
- * 8:00 PM (ET) -- On "BOOKNOTES," C-SPAN interviews Brian Kelly, author of "Adventures in Porkland: How Washington Wastes Your Money and Why They Won't Stop."

For regular programming updates throughout the weekend call the C-SPAN Schedule Hotline at (202) 628-2205.