Dear C-SPAN.

I haven't missed a minute of the Senate Ethics committee hearings, and the first conclusion I have come to, is "Thank God for Mr. Bennett," and "Thank God for Ed Gray, Mr. PATRIARCA et al - It's nice to know we have those watch dogs out there, looking out for the country.

In my mind, the senators are guilty as sin, with the exception of McCain, and Glenn - DiCincini made a fool out of himself on C-SPAN - If, as he stated, all the people in Arizona were behind him, why would he refuse to take questions over the phone?

As far as Sen. Inoye's appearance - that's a laugh - who said he was God? I understand that he is being investigated by the FBI right now - I don't remember what for -

This case is all cut and dried. The Senators will get off without even a slap on the wrist. You can tell by the demeanor of the Committee. Especially Heflin, and Rudman - they seem bent on disregarding convincing evidence against the senators - (violators)

Sen. Heflin was downright rude, when he refused Mr. Gray's admittance of a letter from Sen. Proxmier, (who, in my mind, was the greatest senator we ever had). I seems the committee is going out of there way, to protect their brothers in crime. I think they are all crooks.

In closing, I would like to say thanks to Gwendolyn Van Passhen, for coming on t.v. and giving us a chance to meet her. She is, by far, the star of these proceedings. Most of us don't realize, that there are smart, knowledgeable, women like her in the work force of this country. She is absolutely great, (And pretty too), and, on top of that I love her. But I am 75 years old, very particular, and picky. So, when I say she is great, I'm doing her an injustice.

Thanks C. Span - your coverage is great, and I will not miss one moment of these broadcasts.

By the way, I've worn out 2 fingers on my push button phone, trying to get through - How does one get in on your phone sessions? Keep up the good work, and tell Gwendolyn I said Hi.
