

I watch C-Span because?

3-27-84

I watch C-Span as often as possible, to find out first hand the pulse of the nation, and Congressional/Professional attitudes toward that pulse.

Most commentaries & reports are fragmented and slanted, so we don't always get correct pictures of our national situation.

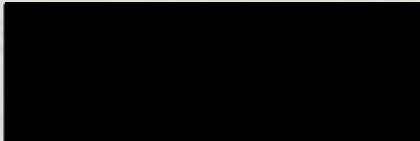

The people who handle the host position have always been adept and unflappable - even when dodos dream up dogmatic dramas for them to contemplate!

I have never experienced more competence!

Our national government needs to know that the public does know facts and figures from programs such as you present, and hear other recognized authorities' comments as well.

Thank you for the concerted effort!
