C. Span:

This is to express my deep appreciation for the privilege of viewing your wonderful coverage of Summit. It was a delight to watch - especially the last evening White House News Conference and the event of President Gorbachev's appearance at Stanford University. Two very moving happenings.

On Book Notes Sunday was delightful and charming - the little boy and his dog on the bridge, the well dressed, hatted couple walking along the cobbled pavement, and other sensitive scenes capturing the eye.

C-Span has become my most important outlet for keeping
"in touch" w/ the World.

Thank you again.
This doesn't require an answer.

"The Journalists Round Table" one of my favorite C-Span events.

the 10th it was very interesting and informative to listen to Brian Lamb interview Thomas Sowell on his publication:

"Preferential Policies
an International Perspective" The next morning I ordered the book from my local publishing outlet as my contribution to a "vital idea" and challenge confronting our nation - the threat of "balkaniza-tion" of this country. I look forward to reading his book.

Thank you too for the absorbing and excellent program C-Span Staff made possible on Czechoslovakia. The photography
