Mr. Brian Lamb
C-SPAN

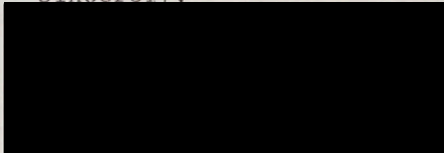

Dear Mr. Lamb:

This letter is written to commend you for your handling of "A Conversation With Ross Perot". I watched the entire two and one-half hours, and attempted to call in the whole time. Obviously, I could not get through.

You lack one of the traits that gets both talk show hosts and journalists into trouble - arrogance. They seem to want to be the stars, and don't permit us to learn what WE want to know about the guest. I appreciate your giving Ross Perot the opportunity to express himself, and answer questions uninterrupted. Besides being arrogant, many hosts are extremely rude. And the fact that most of them are liberals, truly shows through. I have absolutely no idea what your political leanings are, and that's the way it should be. I also noticed that, in spite of your somewhat quiet manner, nowhere in the show did you relinquish your position of being in charge.

Thanks so much for a job well done. You, Mr. Lamb, are truly one classy man. And there is such a shortage of those in our country today.

Sincerely,

Findlay, Ohio 45840

Mr. Brian Lamb
