Dear C-SPAN,

I was outraged by the program shown at 9pm Pacific Time on August 16, 1992.

It was billed as "a British perspective on the Republican National Convention", when in fact it was a right-wing British Conservative Party perspective on the British General Election of 1992. This was a completely skewed version of British politics. I look forward to seeing and hearing a Labor Party rebuttal, but I'm not holding my breath. Disappointedly yours, [REDACTED]
