

Re - Interesting Tributes to a President

On the main street of Denton, Maryland across from the County Court house there is a brass plaque set into the sidewalk. (Perhaps the ASPAN bus could see it.) I am looking for a photo to send you.

It says on this spot Franklin Delano Roosevelt stood to speak, Sept 19, 1932. He said, "

It was not the "only thing to fear" quote - but it was something to empower and urge people to take heart - so it is a snapshot of the depth of the depression. Obviously it meant a lot to folks who were
