Dear Mr. Lamb,

I must write to complain about your "Reporter's Round Table" of May 1, 1992.

I am a big supporter of C-SPAN and am in a fight with my local cable company over lack of C-SPAN coverage. One of the reasons for my support has been your unbiased or at least off-setting reporting practices. Your program this morning taxed my idea of fairness to the limits.

Alexis Moore did nothing but provide a racist point of view of the whole Los Angeles situation from the black point of view.

While race is certainly a subject for open discussion (unless you want to be "Politically Correct"), it should be done when both points can be discussed and not under the guise of "Reporter's Round Table".

I hope in future programs you will maintain a more balanced approach.

Yours truly,
