Dear Mr. Lamb:

I was appalled at your using C-SPAN and your good name and influence to let Ross Perot once again get a free, primetime soapbox to get new members for his ego-trip movement.

Mr. Perot, by his own admission on your show, pays half a million dollars for 30 minutes of broadcast time and you gave him 2½ hours with at least 3 rebroadcasts. C-SPAN contributed $10 million dollars to his campaign in just one day.

If Ross Perot were really serious about doing all this "good" for our country (yours and mine) he would come up with some new, updated ideas instead of repeating his old prepackaged stump speech and unsubstantiated charts.

Except for the interesting tour of his costly private museum, there was nothing new from him, about him or even for him. This was classic Pied-Piper Ross Perot.

If Ross Perot was not so very wealthy, throwing his money around like confetti, no one would pay much attention to him.

Perot is a master at getting his interviewer look foolish as he looks directly into the camera and plays the "gotcha" game. Everyone is trying to "gotcha" him.

C-SPAN IS ONE OF MY FAVORITE SOURCES OF INFORMATION, IT HAS OPENED A WHOLE NEW WORLD TO ME. I HAVE LEARNED SO MUCH ABOUT THE COUNTRY I LOVE AND LIVE IN.

But I must tell you that I, and I am sure many others, are disappointed that it let itself be used.

Very truly yours,
