C-SPAN AIRS "QUESTION TIME" WITH NEW BRITISH PRIME MINISTER JOHN MAJOR

House of Commons Program Also Features Thatcher's Last Question Time

Washington, D.C., November 28 --On Sunday, December 2, from 9:00 - 9:30 PM (ET), American audiences have a rare opportunity to compare the styles of two British Prime Ministers as they face questioning from opposition members of Parliament on C-SPAN's weekly program focusing on the House of Commons.

This week's segment of Prime Minister's "Question Time" will feature Margaret Thatcher taking her last questions as leader of the British government from November 27, as well as John Major in his first Question Time as Great Britain's new Prime Minister from November 29.

Mrs. Thatcher stepped down as Prime Minister after a leadership struggle within the Conservative Party. In her 11-year tenure as Prime Minister, Mrs. Thatcher has faced 7500 questions in almost 700 Question Time sessions. Mrs. Thatcher, though no longer Prime Minister, will continue to serve as a member of Parliament.

On Tuesday, November 27, Mr. Major won a three-way race within the Conservative Party to become Prime Minister. He has directed the British economy as the chancellor of the exchequer since 1989.

C-SPAN offers coverage of "Question Time" every Sunday evening from 9:00 - 9:30 PM (ET). This year, the network garnered an Ace Award nomination for its "Question Time" program.

C-SPAN is available in 51.7 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. The network is privately funded and is a public service of the cable television industry.
