

To Whom This May Concern:

Hi. My name is [REDACTED] I have enjoyed C-SPAN the past two years for many reasons. Your wide range of coverage and expanded ~~but~~ range of nation-wide, in-depth exposés of how the media works is quite revealing. The average under-educated American can understand what you're doing: let the people inside politics and the media introduce their views. This ~~lets~~ allows the people of this country to broaden their knowledge of many important issues. On your call-in programs, your staff does not impose the C-Span opinion, your staff at all times requests the callers to give their view, quite unique and refreshing.

I am the legislative officer for my [REDACTED] and you show has found its contents into my reports to the letter carriers quite often - Thank you. (over)

please forgive my letter, I am rushed to mail it. (not because of the postal service of course, but the mail deal here.) Thanks for all you do, I appreciate your work. Thanks!

Respectfully yours,
