I am writing in regards to your call in programs, which are mostly about politics in some form or another.

I am 82 years old and I watch a lot of T.V. to pass the time.

I have noticed that 98% of the callers are Republicans by the questions they ask and the comments they make. Why does the show host ask the callers if they are Republican or Democrat? are better yet get an 800 number so everyone would have a fair chance to call in and express their views and opinion. After all most poor people can't afford a long distant phone call.

Your 30 day policy is not working either I have heard these people call in so often I know their voices as soon as they start speaking why don't the host cut them off, after all they are breaking the rules.

P.S. - I am not condemning your show. I think it's great, but I think it would be more interesting to know if the callers are Republican or Democrat)
