Gentlemen:

I cannot believe that in good faith you believe the personal attacks on the President's person life is fair comment. I just cannot visualize C-Span contributing to the prestige as if this newsworthy. This is in the genre of Amy Fisher, Buttofusco. I didn't like that & I don't like this. Participating in this is just beneath C-Span's good standards.

I am not speaking of Whitewater - just the slime of the entire comments on the personal lives involved

Very truly yours

I just expected better!
