I like C-Span because:

C-Span has for the first time in our history shown elected politicians for what they are.

It has allowed citizens to draw conclusions about most of the actions taken by elected officials without relying totally on the media for interpretation.

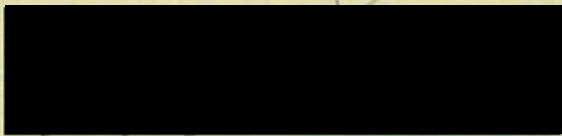

It has allowed, thru your call in shows with elected officials, citizens to confront these officials without fear of retaliation.

It's scheduling allows citizens, regardless of their work schedule, to see government in action, in inaction or total confusion.

It has, thru its call-in shows,
made possible comments about its own programming. To open one's self, as each phone call is taken on air, to the prospect of praise, domination
or advice is an act of courage.

C- Spun by its call-in shows has done more to insure freedom of speech for every citizen than any legislation enacted since those taken by our founding fathers.

Keep of the good work
