To All Concerned:

Please consider this a love letter to the station.

I can't thank you enough for the invaluable public service programming you provide. I got hooked during the political campaigns of the past year; the complete, uninterrupted and uneditorialized coverage was nothing less than outstanding. And I can certainly empathize with the fellow who called in during the economic conference — if you recall, he was laid up with the flu and he said it was the best sickness he'd ever had — because I myself have been in bed with that miserable bug for the past week and a half, and I was able to watch from beginning to end. My God, what an event! If only I'd had instructors (like the people I saw and heard) when I'd been in college decades ago — this was a crash course in nuts-and-bolts economics like no other.

In fact — I'd like to suggest that C-SPAN's publications department transcribe the proceedings and put them in book form; it would be a priceless reference work for anyone interested in economics from a broad spectrum of points of view. I would buy one of the first copies, believe me. How about it?

Again, many, many thanks for a public service whose value is beyond measure.

The very best,

(Ms.)
