Subject: American Presidents: Life Portraits

Dear Marty,

In the above referenced letter, you mentioned that I was an Honorable Mention in the C-SPAN President's Life Portraits contest and that you were enclosing with the letter a series' premium as thanks for my participation; however, you forgot the enclosure.

Also, I would like to know the following:

When and where will this honorable mention appear?

Will there be a published list of the winners in each age category, and will a copy of their prizing winning work be available?

Which President's life portraits were among the winners? And, were there more than one winner for any one President?

What made the winners work outstanding and why did they win?

How many entrants were there in my age category?

Your answers are important to me, since I am over sixty years old and starting my second career, which happens to be historical writing.

Your reply will be appreciated. And, I wish to thank C-Span for selecting me as one their third place winners.

Sincerely,

C-SPAN

Dear Patty,

Congratulations!

From the over 750 entries received for C-SPAN's American Presidents: Life Portraits viewer contest, yours has been judged as an Honorable Mention.

Please accept the enclosed series' [?]premium as thanks for your participation. We hope you were entertained and increased your knowledge of our Presidents by watching the programming as well as from preparing your entry. And, thank you for watching the C-SPAN networks!

Once again, congratulations!

Sincerely,
