C-SPAN AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS, INC. (TCI) INTRODUCE LOCAL MICHIGAN STUDENTS TO A NATIONAL AUDIENCE

Washington, D.C., October 13, 1992 -- C-SPAN, the Cable Satellite Public Affairs Network, will air an "Election '92 High School Forum" on Tuesday, October 20, at 1:30 PM (ET). TCI and C-SPAN offer this unique opportunity to introduce high school students to a national audience during the 1992 election process as the general election approaches.

C-SPAN's cameras will travel to East Lansing High School, East Lansing, Michigan to get student reactions to the presidential and vice presidential debates. The "Election '92 High School Forum" program will air the day after the presidential debate on channel 13 in a forum moderated by a C-SPAN host to invigorate the discussion.

Students will have the opportunity to discuss their views on the presidential candidates, the issues important to young Americans and the students' involvement in the 1992 presidential election process. Through TCI's commitment to "Cable in the Classroom," the series will enhance cable's significance as an educational tool.

The high school forum schedule is as follows:

Debate

3rd Presidential Debate
Monday, October 19
7:00 PM (ET)
East Lansing, MI

Election '92 High School Forum

2nd High School Forum
Tuesday, October 20
1:30 PM (ET)
East Lansing, MI

C-SPAN is currently available in 57.4 million households nationwide and worldwide via satellite. C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.
