Dear Mr. Lamb,

I was very disappointed with your program on C. Span on August 23.

I can tolerate or ignore Pat Buchanan, and Christopher Hitchens is tolerable if you can understand him.

I thought the concept of the show was deplorable.

What kind of a question is it to ask whether you like Bill Clinton or not. Can't you come up with something more intelligent and with more substance? Our country has problems that need solving, and I think discussions on these make more sense than to conduct a popularity contest. I do think your program tilts to the right. I just hope you don't bow down and seek an interview with Rush Limbaugh as others are falling over themselves to do. I can't believe he boosts their ratings or makes that much money for them. He's a very dangerous influence.

I hope Congress does something "Fairness in Broadcasting" or something to bring him down.
Or at least to make him stop ridiculing the President, the President's policy in personal ways. He can differ, but he can tell the truth and be civil. Forget the songs and innuendos.

Hope you elevate your talk shows. I do want to be able to continue watching.

Sincerely,
