Your coverage just ended minutes ago, & as usual was great.

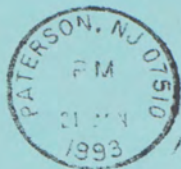

My comment & thanks is for Brian:

The only enjoyment for those at the Arkansas Ball was seen when they danced to Chuck Berry. I did not envy anyone at that fall ... they seemed to be lost & melting about with drinks in hand.

Thanks, Brian, for the choice you made that was indeed the highlight for the attendees & your viewers... That was when you allowed 3-4 mins of pure Chuck Berry with no interviews, no anything. Up to that point, the entire evening was pitifully sluggish. It enabled the evening to add on an upbeat note. I think the fun had to be with the MTV group. Thanks

PS Brian: you are a fine host / interviewer.
