

1. As to whether there is "a hierarchical rewards system in Heaven" (Page 5), the language of Matthew 16:27 could not be more clear, explicit and direct on the question. For other verses that confirm it, see Matthew 5:12, 19 ; 18:4 ; 19:30 ; 20:16, 23 ; 2 Cor. 5:10 ; 2 Tim. 4:1 and Rev. 20:12-13 (and other passages that mention the concept, such as Rev. 2:20-29).

2. The root causes of the multiple and massive ills of our society will not be purged adequately until the motivations of people are changed. It is not within the purview or power of government to effect such changes.

An individual must make a firm, conscious decision to serve God, not the world; to live for God, not for the world; to live for the elements of this world that will survive into the next one (such as music and humor, to pick two of the more joyful), not for those that will disappear. (such as money and temporal power).

3. I have a hunch that anything which, on the face of it, even without another fact being uncovered, stinks to high heaven as badly as Whitewater does will be revealed to be even worse than we have imagined.
