

Mr. Brian Lamb Re: Phone lines

10-0-20 P

This is my third note to you regarding the mockery of these divisions: Liberal, Conservative and moderate. I'm sure the number of objectionists to this method would be astronomical if they could get on the phone - it is not controllable by the hosts/hostesses of C. Span, yet, everyone of you act with extreme anger when you feel the lines have been used deceptively. The amazing thing - all of you appear to be educated & intelligent, and yet you act in a juvenile way, first by having the method, second, then expressing anger. A call-in viewer this morning objecting to the 3 lines expressed my feelings - and prompted this third letter to C. Span, in the past 3 weeks; many others earlier. Susan was absolutely irate this week when a call-in viewer openly admitted he had used the phone line not designated to his ideas - she was really mad. I've seen you express the same anger - Brian, open up the phone lines to AMERICA and get rid of this juvenile, silly method - actually, you've set up 2 liberal lines for liberal & moderate are used for liberals - keep count!
