

Brian Lamb

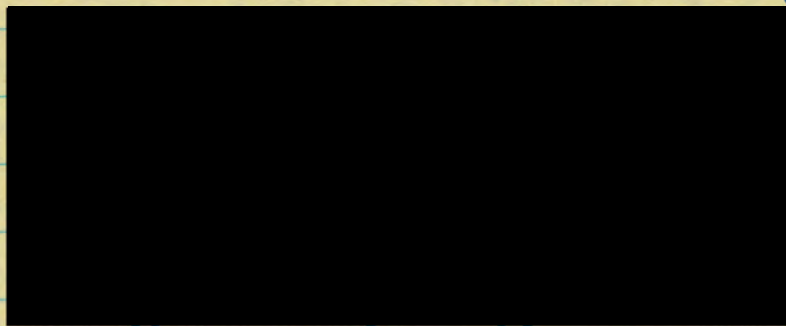

4-26-94

C-SPAN

I usually turn the sound off during athletic events, but I did that when Susan announced she was having Whitcomb on with her. Poor taste in selection of him by C-SPAN and his poor taste really to me was a cheap shot. -

President Nixon's family and friends I hope were spared Whitcomb's insults and his verbal abuse method of scoff. If you selected Whitcomb I'm sure you know what he would do and say

Whitcomb's "vision" and wordy Watergate verbiage really typifies the present day journalistic jargon. Libel and slander ~~prevail~~ freedom of expression spoken and written carries a responsibility.

Hermiston Oregon
97838-2330