Dear Mr.Lamb:

Although this letter is sddressed to you, my comments are directed at the entire C-SPAN family.

For a long time I have mentally written many letters congratulating you folks on the outstanding service you provide. You provide the most balanced coverage that I have found anywhere in the media. (The reason I am so positive on that, is the fact that many times it has been difficult to watch and listen to some whose views are so diametrically opposed to mine. But you folks have inspired me to do so -- and I have learned much.....even some things I really didn't want to know.)

All of you have reason to be very proud of your accomplishments. I have watched critically for over 4 years now to try to detect any of your personal biases. We all have them whether we are aware of it or not. I have been unsuccessful -- so either you all are in synch with mine (which I doubt) or you are all awfully good poker players!

Thank you for providing me with the wealth of information I have acquired during the time I've watched your programming. I hope I am a better citizen because of it. I feel sure I am.

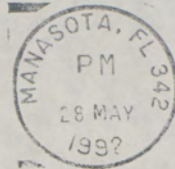

Sincerely,

[Redacted signature]

(Mrs. [Redacted])

P.S. Your Memorial Day coverage of the trip to 'Nam was superb. It helped me to begin to have a little faith in some of our Congresspersons.
