Gentlemen;

I'm sick and tired of hearing
about Monica and the President.

I love to watch C-span. I turn it on every morning at 6 o'clock our time. Five minutes later I turn it off. That's about how long it takes for the subject to come up. Sometimes, not that long.

If this were anything but politicians who know they can't attack the President's policies, this situation would have ~~remained~~ remained something between Clinton, his God and his family.

There are two questions I would like to ask Clinton's enemies and critics:

Question No. 1. When was the last time you read your Bible?

Question No. 2. How many perfect people did you find in the Bible?

There is only one perfect person in the entire Bible from Cover to Cover — Jesus.

God does not use perfect people to do His work. Whether we like it or not, we are all doing God's work — some good, some not so good. But, in the end, some how, some way it all comes out right.

Let real people. Now is not the time to get rid of Bill Clinton. The Country and the world needs his skills at this time. It's only a matter of a few months until our wonderful, workable system will retire Bill Clinton to private life.

The opponets of his policies can find some one else to attack. Better yet, they may wake up to the fact that people like the President's policies.

Sincerely

I'm 87 years old. I don't write so well. I hope you can read this. I'm worried about ~~what~~ what's happening to our country. For some reason people today just don't understand life.
