Thank you for the appearance of Martin Lee, Dir. of Fair. Just when I give up with your "sick" radio shows, campaign strategies and House of Commons, you give me someone standing up for truth!

It was "in-shock"! I thought it was totally acceptable for the govt. to lie in behalf of corporate and money interest and the corporate media to make it look good doing it.

But, it's something to ponder.....
It could be disastrous for the 1% who owns 50% of the wealth! First thing you know.... the people might start voting again and expect govt. for all the people... healthy, productive and educated people... with honorable leaders... proud of themselves and their country..... Nah!!!
