C-Span
U. S. Congress Handbook
400 N. Capitol St
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear C-Span -

The enclosed $3.50 check is for the U.S. Congress Handbook.
Thank you for giving my life a new dimension. I am a senior citizen and thus have hours to give to television. I give them only to C-Span.
But the gift is reciprocal. In fact, I have received so much knowledge from your programs that I can now justify the monthly bills I pay for cable.

If one suggestion is permissible it is that your cameramen focus more on closeups than on long views: This applies particularly to seminars & conferences with audiences and also to special events.

My particular C-Span programs are those in which Brian Lamb interviews his guests. He is by far the most credible and sensitive interviewer on TV. Dan Rather could learn quite a bit at Brian's "feet." The book review program on Sunday evenings at 8 PM is one that I never miss - He does such a wonderful job of allowing the author to reveal himself.

Thank you again - Sincerely yours,
