

I watch C-SPAN because it provides the most information per minute available through television. It transmits reality — Congressional hearings, House debates, candidate speeches and debates, academic & institutional symposia, and "on the street" interviews — with a minimum of packaging & hype, and most importantly, with nothing lost to the editing room floor. It is a refreshing source of "pure" fact in a medium overcome by the urge to embellish fact with fantasy.

Thank you C-SPAN,

Sincerely,
