

March 9, 1994

C-Span
400 N. Capital St. #650
Washington, D.C. 20001

Dear "C-Span";

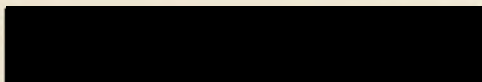

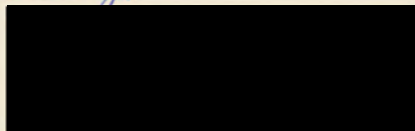

As a very long-time admirer of Abraham Lincoln, and a tourist who at last had the opportunity to visit his home and the Old Court House in 1992, I was delighted to "run across" your program on his "House Divided" speech on Saturday, March 5th. I loved the program, and am looking forward to watching the debates.

I have never before watched anything on C-Span, and only saw the speech because, while flipping channels, I recognized the building shown at the beginning of the program. I hope that you will have some announcement of the "debate" coverage before it is actually shown; I may not be so lucky next time! You probably don't have a need to advertise, but it would be helpful!

I just wanted to tell you how much I enjoyed
the program, and to thank you for presenting it.

Sincerely,

Riva, Maryland 21140