

AUGUST 2, 1993

Dear Sir—

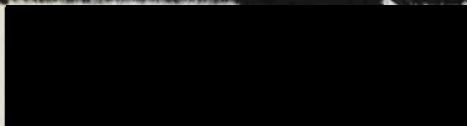

I've been watching Road to the White House '96 ever since it started. There has not been one thing on Dan Quayle in the episodes that I've seen so far. I'm wondering now if you would be able to do something about it and that is this.

In your next installment of Road to the White House '96, on September 5, could you please try and set up an interview with Dan Quayle and run the interview on Road to the White House '96? Also, when you do the interview, PLEASE ask him if he is either seriously thinking about or definitely planning to run for President in 1996! Thank you! I'm looking forward to watching Road to the White House '96!

Sincerely,
