To Those In Charge - AT C-SPAN

It is impossible to get through on your phone lines - but in watching and listening to the calls that do get through it is very obvious that the calls are stacked for Clinton.

When, by chance, a Republican line is answered - they are cut off in ^a very short time. Brian, ^(and the women) especially, is guilty of this. Just listen to your tapes - he will question and question a supporter - even if they stammer around and can't be clear with what they are saying. He ~~asks~~ ^{asks} all kinds of things - just to keep someone talking for Clinton.

This man would have been out a long time ago if he had been a Republican. It is really a blight on our Country that Clinton is still in the White House. The only reason Pres. Nixon was put out was he was a Republican and he hated the "lying Press" and they hated him. When 85% or more of the Press voted Democrat - then how do you think they would handle the News! I think they should dig Pres. Nixon up and apologize to him and his family for what "they" did to him. He told one little lie - that didn't even matter. No one died in his Administration - he didn't flirt with the enemy (China-Asia) he didn't sell the White House like a brothel - Until the "Media" gets honest - Clinton will come out smelling like a rose. Do me, he just smells!

As far his wife - do you think she is going to give up her position of power! If they weren't in the White House - they would have been divorced a long time ago. She has probably had her affairs also. She had over 1000 FBI files - Chuck Colson had one and did 18 months for it. We heard a person from Arkansas (Lingo?) tell how Clinton has always lied. There was a project in "Hope" and when confronted about it Clinton said he knew NOTHING about it - When in reality - he had written the proposal to get it started! He feels that you can lie if it justifies what you want to do.

He may lie his way out of this - again - but someday he will tell his last lie - the reason I believe your program is stacked is because those who call in say Clinton's morals do not matter - in all my friends and acquaintances not one feels that way. We are appalled at his actions. They say, well the economy is good - he had nothing to do with the economy. If we had not had a Republican Congress - we'd really be in a mess. They are the ones who kept a lid on spending + lowered taxes - who do you + your callers think they are fooling!

The Clintons' lives go back to the 60's when they were hippies - and they have an agenda for our country - all of it bad! They - like the Kennedys bought their way into the White House - they too, will pay the price someday - whether in this life or the next.

Hillary tries to act like she is in love with all the children - does she know what they are doing to our kids - the parents are having a difficult time answering the questions of their kids about her and her husband and their immoral behavior - how do you talk to kids about the President and his sex life. You in the "media" might live like these people do - but most of us don't.

I suppose if you live in the gutter that's where you find your friends and I believe that is where most of the "media" live.

This probably won't get read by anyone who cares or matters - but I got it off my chest - since being a Republican I won't get thru.
