We watch C Span most of every day. I especially like the journalists (Jim MIKLASZEWSKI?). Somehow they are more interesting than the politicians altho we watch anyway. The BOOK NOTES segment is my favorite - your interview with Ben Stein was most enlightening. I remember reading the scurrilous article he wrote about Joan Rivers. I lived in CA. when that story broke & the piece was written, I wondered "why" - it was so mean-spirited. Also that interview with Michael Medford prompted me to read the book from the library. He is one of my "heroes" - so brave to take on all those Hollywood liberals. We have been movie goers for 40 yrs & have seen a steady decline - he sure is "on the mark". All the best -
