

9/10/93

Dear Mr. Lamb:

I tried to get thru on the Journalists round table on Fri.
~~Sept~~ September 10 the whole 1 1/2 hours and couldn't get thru although,
as you know, I usually do.

You all were ^{all} over the lot because your callers were all over the lot. ⁹
Why? Because I've embarrassed them 'shit out of Ross Perot on various talk shows this week over NAFTA, he knows me from my calls, and he's concerned ~~that~~ ~~agg~~ I've decided to take the side of NAFTA-pro jobs and for a level playing field in Mexico. By the time I get done with him, hell wish he was for NAFTA from the start.

His callers were jamming the lines with stupid, off the walls calls, instead of talking about what most Americans ^{really} want to talk about, the pros and cons of NAFTA!

And By the way, are all the ex-Presidents getting together to push it or not? You could use C-SPAN to embarrass them all to come on! We need them if they're for it.

Sincerely,

St. Louis, Mo. 63123/

On Larry King's tv show this week a fellow St. Louis woman, whom I do not know, challenged Mickey Kantor to come on King's show and discuss NAFTA with Pres. Thursday, Pres. was on King's radio show and I challenged him to come on King's show with Kantor. He said he would. &

America deserves to hear all the pros and cons of NAFTA from these 2 characters. We're getting the cons, no pro's. My money's on Mickey and I voted for Bush, I'm not trying to pass NAFTA for Clinton but America.

~~Take some~~

Have some lots of shows till December and have a line that opposes NAFTA and a line for those pro NAFTA. Come on help me out here the working class don't know any pros!
