Brian P. Lamb, Director
C-SPAN
400 N. Capitol St., NW, Suite 650
Washington, DC 20001

Dear Mr. Lamb:

As a C-SPAN junkie, let me make a suggestion for the next issue of the U.S. Congress Handbook. I use it continually when listening to members on the floor or in various settings, but, as well as I know parts of this nation, I can't always place a person in his (her) district. What I just did was to take my NY Times pages from the day after last year's election, clip and paste, and make the enclosed lists and charts (which I then laminated!) so that I could refer to names and places easily.

I suggest that you consider doing something similar in the Handbook; I think it would make things lots easier to understand as we watch.

Thanks again for all you do.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
