Dear Mr. Lamb:

We have just returned from a most enjoyable week in Washington arranged by the Close-Up Foundation. We want to especially thank you for your support of the work of the Close-Up Foundation.

The program was exceedingly well-planned so that it was both informative and pleasurable and as a result it not only expanded our knowledge of how our government works and of the historical roots of current battles but also extended our appreciation of the cultural resources in Washington.

We were also very impressed with the staff. The several instructors, especially Scott Richardson who was with our group, were knowledgeable, impartial, able to share their interests in government, and always related to us as if we were friends and relatives.

Again, our thanks to you for your part in making this possible.

Sincerely yours,

Lawrence, KS 66047-3150
