

Dear Brian Lamb,

I watch your call in shows all the time. I especially like your Journalist Round Table - Will you please ask them a question for me? I can not understand why Foreign Drug Dealers and gun runners are not acceptable Witnesses (who are serving time in a U.S. Prison) to testify about their knowledge of "October Surprise" (members of the Reagan-Bush Campaign Team meeting with the Iranians in the Summer and early Fall of 1980 to make a deal to Hold Our American Embassy Hostages until Ronald Reagan could take the White House from Pres. Carter - It seems so obvious to me that as soon as Ronald Reagan finished his Inauguration speech the Hostages were released - also the American Military hardware were making its way to Iran. If The Bush Administration can use Prisoners that are Foreign Drug Lord, Murderer or qualified witnesses against Noreaga. Some of those Prisoners were released from Prison or Prison time cut in half and a Holiday Inn type of living to finish out their Prison Term - when <sup>To entice them to testify</sup> Our American Law Abiding Citizens testified that Noreaga was on our C.I.A. Payroll - Wasn't this a sort of Karpagoo or Harpers Court? This should be an interesting Topic for Discussion ask your Views should have a question or two to call in.

Sincerely
