Weibel

How could you allow such vulgar words, stories and the use of Dad's name in vain to be sent out through your C-span program.

By their examples, it is the adults that are ruining and have ruined many of our children.

The program I am writing about is Mrs. Molly Ivin's speech of "Politics in America" at the University of California, Davis on Thursday, February 13, 1995 and repeated and seen by me on Saturday, February 15, 1995 was sickening. And, I as a woman who watched and listened to her speech was ashamed for our gender.

Must we as women throw aside all decency and respect to be popular? Is this what we are teaching our college students who are to be our future fathers and mothers? How frightening and sad.

I have watched C-span for a long time. If, this type of programming continues then I will no longer watch C-span. I wonder how many children

Dear Mr. Brian Lamb,

WELLEN

How could you allow such vulgar words, stories and the use of God's name in vain to be sent out through your C-Span program.

By their examples, it is the adults that are ruining and have ruined many of our children.

The program I am writing about is Ms. Molly Ivin's speech of "Political America" at the University of California, Davis on Thursday, February 23, 1995 and repeated and seen by me on Saturday, February 25, 1995 was sickening. And, I as a woman who watched and listened to her speech was ashamed for our gender.

Must we as women throw aside all decency and respect to be popular? Is this what we are teaching our college students who are to be our future fathers and mothers? How frightening and sad.

I have watched C-Span for a long time. If, this type of programming continues then I will no longer watch C-Span. I wonder how many children watched M. S. Irvin's speech on Saturday,

February 25, 1995?

Respect is not given, it is earned.

Sincerely,
