Dear Mr. Lamb:

It was a pleasure to view the Pozner-Donahue program on Tuesday, September 28th. Your discussion on "Must Carry" and government controls on Cable T.V. was most informative.

Both you and Mr. Pozner were objective. I agree with Mr. Pozner, that as a result of the action Congress has taken we have a classic example of "The Law of Unintended Consequences."

Although you and Mr. Pozner maintained dignity throughout the program, I cannot say the same for Mr. Donahue. He uses this program as a "Bully Pulpit." To ignore the intelligence of Mr. Pozner and harass everyone who does not agree with him is a disservice to the sponsors and the listeners.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]
