BLUE JAYS

Mr. Lamb,

11/30/93

I really enjoy your interview on The Span.

I write the Congress frequently because many of us are disillusioned.
Keep up the good work!

2 I saw you on C-Span discussing the
3 Clinton administration. I'm a Conservative -
4 Patriotic - Republican who hopes every program
5 of the President's succeeds because he's giving
6 away the store so everyone will have a golden egg
7 to scramble.

8 I also read parts from a book called
9 "Bankruptcy 1995". There are no spending cuts
10 and the deficit is going to continue to rise.

11 When I went to school in the 1950's when
12 morality was in vogue, we respected our teachers.
13 We read the Bible in the morning + sang religious
14 songs in music class.

15 Now you can commit murder and be out on 16 the street in 15 years. We now analyse why the 17 crime was committed and we don't punish the criminal.

18 I'm tired of the words FAIR, FEEL GOOD,
19 and TAX THE RICH.

20 Ed Rollins reminds me of the times we started
21 rumors so the neighborhood gossip would spread
22 the word.

23 Life is not fair. It's a battle. Who's fault
24 is it who women have 5 kids + no husband to 25 support them. People use drugs because they 26 have no self-discipline + family values have 27 declined.

28 Last September Candidate Clinton said, "I

1 I'm tired of the Republicans talking about
2 family values. Now he wants to take credit
3 for nurturing the traditional family after the 4 Democrats laughed at V. P. Quigley when he
5 made it a point of emphasis during the campaign.

6 My family has lived in the country all our
7 lives. My parents + relatives lived on lard,
8 sausage, beef, pork, and butter. Cholesterol
9 was a non-factor. They all died in their 80's.
10 We paid our own doctor bills + the government
11 stayed out of our lives.

12 The President's move to Socialism will
13 destroy this country. I'm 54, single, and retired.
14 Hopefully, I can ride out a deep recession or 15 depression, or whatever. I feel sorry for families
16 who won't be able to afford to live in this
17 government controlled country, and it won't be the real
18 rich but the middle class. Anyone who has 19 debt when interest rates rise + inflation takes over
20 will be out on the street.

21 We can't guarantee no one will be in poverty
22 + everyone will have unlimited health care
23 with the government footing the bill. The Bible
24 states that the poor will always be with us.
25 It's unfortunate, but true.

26 The direction of this presidency, I feel,
27 can be seen in the answer Paul Biegala
28 gave to a student at American U.

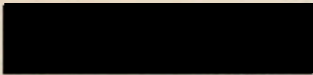

1 where the media was being grilled. She
2 asked who would pay for the 100,000
3 police which would be put on the streets.
4 He said, "By downsizing government or we'll
5 find it someplace else." We all know
6 the other place is TAXES.

7 I love America. I'm a super patriot.
8 However, I'm a realist. I was taught that 9 you don't get something for nothing. The 10 government doesn't create jobs and it doesn't
11 cure social ills like crime + teenage pregnancy
12 by handing out condoms. We may be country
13 bumpkins but we're not stupid! ✓

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes for his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times of his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During you times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

If we meet and you forget
me, you have lost nothing.

But, if you meet

JESUS CHRIST

and forget Him

You have lost everything!
