

Storm Over Chocolate Drops

Maze Overlook, Canyonlands National Park, Utah

Photograph by Gary Ladd

Produced by Beautyway, Box 340, Flagstaff, AZ 86002

LOGAN UT
84321

Dec. 1, 1990

developed with a lot of lightening. Thunder would roll & roll for 30 to 35 seconds! It was really something.

Later, when describing the experience to a physiat friend, he explained the lightening jumped, the opposite of normal, from the ground to the sky & the sound bounced down from the heavy cloud cover - up & down the canyons.

I'll be leaving for D.C. tomorrow to engage in some political demonstrations in support of moving ahead with M.E. peace.

It's time for Peace in the M.E.,

Brian Lamb, C-SPAN
400 North Capitol St.
Suite 650
Wash, D.C.

2000/1

Dear Brian,

I appreciated your inquiry to Gary Sick regarding Zionist motives in debunking the story.

Once I had the opportunity to speak over a meal with a man who worked the Israeli desk under Hais & Schultz in the State Dept. He smiled broadly and continuously nodded his head affirmatively when I ran a scenario by him. My ~~analysis~~ came from my overview as an observer & had never heard anyone speculate on the subject.

"Not wanting Carter around for a 2nd term because he had the habit of pressing ahead on M.E. peace, the Israeli intelligence proposed to the Reagan team a way to deny Carter a 2nd term. In the process Reagan was compromised, resulting in the stacking of the deck. Jeanne Kirkpatrick, Max Kampelman, Ken Adelman, Paul Bremer, Alan Keyes, A. Haig, Abe Souter, Richard Perles (a woman who worked in his office said, "every appt. Perles made was vociferously pro-Israel, and many other undulings got positions thru which U.S. M.E. policy was tightly controlled.

Bush's awareness ("we were in the grips of the Israelis") has played a role in his determination to settle the problem. The Maze (over) is the most isolated portion of Canyonlands Nat. Park. On my last trip a storm

