Dear Brian

I wanted to tell you
I could tell your absolute Bias for the Republican Party. I think you should be non partisan and be equally fair to Bush, Clinton and Perot.

I was very upset by your attitude for Bush. I think he had his own way for four years and we are not better off because of his Presidency.

He is the President for the Rich. He is from a wealthy socially prominent family so he never been part of the middle or poor classes of people. He is more comfortable with the rich friends who live in mansions, ride in limos and wear diamonds and furs. Bush is always rich.

Bill Clinton is a rag to riches all American dream come true. So I feel he is more in tuned with the common people.

People will want a sound and down to earth man. Bush only cares for the rich and his place in history.
