Dear Q Span -

You are doing a very good Service too the public in regard to the Washington Dc. Iraqi mess.

Wouldnt it have been better "if"
An Arab had taken the lead instead of Pres. Bush.

The U.S. is not liked in the Middle East. The feeling might have been better by the Arabians - also may less Childiss Rhetoric - The U.S. Could have kept in the back ground giving guidance.

This is an oil war. Nothing else.

WE (U.S) did nothing when Iraq Killed Our Saviors - Reagan said
It was an "Error"

Bush seems to "show off" being Commander In Chief.

after all he is in a foreign Land.
giving Order from Washington DC Good will go a long way in winning a war -

I do not believe the Cold war is over - only warm.

far too many Russians keeping Iraq. The Russian. Calls them mechanic - I do not trust Russia.

I would like to hear some one speak about Bush taking the lead, instead of an Arabian.

Bush had war in mind from day one, he didn't want to lose his oil dividends in Texas.

The Oil Companies will be the only one gaining in this war - "Money"

The Calling up Reserves only tells me, Bush is showing his power -

No one man should have that much power - The heads of foreign affairs, The Chairmen of Both house should be consulted first -

Thanks again for workweek
