Dear Brian:

You must have been at the absolute bottom of the barrel when you picked Don Fedder to appear on your program yesterday morning.

How can he call himself a reporter and say that Clinton only served two terms as Governor of Arkansas?

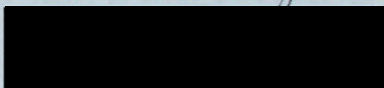

And I quite agree with Chris Matthews's indignation over Felder's repeated Assertion that it's OK to lie to Congress, even though it is the crime of perjury to do so.

Ugh!

And to think this guy has written a book on the decline of American values!

Variety is an enlivening spice in the choice of reporters on your program of course, but sleaze is something else again!

I was appalled when you said at the end that you would have him back. Will you really? My goodness! Sincerely,
