

HARPER'S
M A G A Z I N E

April 20, 2001

Brian Lamb
C-SPAN
400 North Capitol Street, NY
Suite 650
Washington, DC 20001

Dear Brian,

Your take on Tom Paine was much more vivid on the screen than I would have guessed from watching the making of it by a few people in a small house on a cold morning in New Rochelle. I obliged two of my children to attend the program, and I consider them improved by their acquaintance with one of their illustrious political ancestors.

Yours,

